COMMONWEALTH OF DOMINICA

STATUTORY RULES AND ORDERS No. 12 OF 2008

REGULATIONS

Made by the Minister under section 74 of the Telecommunications Act, 2000 (Act No. 8 of 2000).

(Gazetted 29th May, 2008.)

PART 1
PRELIMINARY

1. (1) These Regulations may be cited as the -

Short title and commencement.

TELECOMMUNICATIONS (WHOLESALE)
REGULATIONS, 2008.

(2) These Regulations shall come into force on the date of publication in the Gazette.

2. In these Regulations-

Interpretation.

“Act” means the Telecommunications Act, 2000.

Act No. 8 of 2000.

“dominant wholesale service provider” means a public network operator who is designated by the Commission as dominant for the purposes of providing special wholesale services
under regulation 4;

“public network operator” means a person who provides telecommunications services between two parties neither of whom is affiliated with such person, accepts the rights and obligations of public network operators and is licensed to operate a public telecommunications network;

2008 TELECOMMUNICATIONS S.R.O. 12
(WHOLESALE) REGULATIONS

“public telecommunications network” means a telecommunications network used for the provision of telecommunications services to the public;

“retail service” means a telecommunications service that a public network operator provides at retail to end-user customers;

“special wholesale service” means a wholesale service which consists of the essential components or functions of a total retail service, and any ancillary services necessary for other providers of telecommunications services to efficiently provide a total retail service to end-users;

“telecommunications services” means services provided by means of telecommunications facilities, and includes the provision in whole or in part of telecommunications facilities and any related equipment, whether by sale, lease or otherwise or such other services as may be prescribed by the Minister from time to time;

“total retail service” means retail service that includes the components or functions required to be offered on a wholesale basis as a special wholesale service as determined in regulation 6;

“wholesale service” means a retail service or element of a retail service that is purchased from a public network operator by a telecommunications provider for resale to the public.

Availability of retail services for wholesale.

3. (1) A public network operator shall make available all of its retail services as wholesale services to a telecommunications provider on a nondiscriminatory basis and without discriminatory conditions or limitations.

(2) A wholesale service that is expressly intended for one category of customers shall not be resold to another category of customers.

(3) A public network operator shall not discriminate in favour of its end-user customers or against other providers of telecommunications services.

4. (1) The Commission, acting on the recommendation of ECTEL, and by notice published in the Gazette, may, with respect to a particular market or markets, designate a public network operator as a dominant wholesale service provider for the purposes of providing retail services at a discount and providing special wholesale services.

Dominant wholesale service provider.

(2) If the Commission has determined, after a public consultation process that -

(a) a public network operator enjoys a position of economic strength affording it the power to behave to an appreciable extent independently of competitors, customers and ultimately consumers in a market or markets for telecommunications services in Dominica; and

(b) it is in the best interests of consumers of the telecommunications services that the public network operator be so designated the Commission shall designate the public network operator a dominant wholesale service provider.

(3) The Commission may undertake a consultation process which will commence with a preliminary determination of market dominance and the designation of one or more dominant wholesale service providers.

(4) The Commission shall notify a public network operator who is preliminarily determined and designated by the Commission to be a dominant wholesale service provider of the determination and designation and shall provide the public network operator with the opportunity to respond in writing within 30 days of the preliminary determination and designation.

2008 TELECOMMUNICATIONS S.R.O. 12
(WHOLESALE) REGULATIONS

(5) The Commission shall cause a notice of the response of the public network operator to be published in a newspaper of wide circulation.

(6) Interested parties may comment in writing to the Commission within 15 days of the publication of the response of the network operator(s).

(7) The Commission shall forward the comments of all interested parties to the affected network operator.

(8) The affected public network operator shall reply to interested parties within 15 days of receipt of their comments.

(9) The Commission shall issue its final determination of market dominance no later than 30 days after all comments have been filed with it.

(10) Notwithstanding the foregoing sub-regulations, a public network operator may consent to being treated as a dominant wholesale service provider.

(11) The Commission, acting on the recommendation of ECTEL or acting on a petition filed by a dominant wholesale provider, and by notice published in the Gazette, may determine that the conditions specified in sub-regulation (1) no longer exist with respect to a particular market or markets and, if it is so determined by the Commission, shall remove the designation of dominant wholesale provider from a public network operator.

Wholesale service discount.

5. (1) The Commission, acting on the recommendation of ECTEL and by notice published in the Gazette, may determine, after a public consultation process, a standard wholesale discount from retail prices at which dominant wholesale service providers must offer wholesale services.

(2) A dominant wholesale service provider may apply for a standard wholesale discount to be amended.

(3) The standard wholesale discount shall be applied to all retail services of a dominant wholesale service provider until such time as the Commission has determined that a different discount is justified for any retail service or groups of retail services.

(4) Where the Commission determines that a different wholesale service discount is justified, the Commission shall notify the public of the new wholesale service discount that is to be applied.

(5) The new wholesale service discount shall take effect within 30 days of publication by the Commission.

(6) The wholesale service discount shall be calculated to reflect the costs associated with providing a retail service or retail services to end-user customers that the dominant wholesale service provider avoids when making such service or services available as wholesale services offset by the costs the dominant wholesale service provider may incur to make such retail service or services available as wholesale services.

6. (1) The Commission, acting on the recommendation of ECTEL and by notice published in the Gazette and on the Commission's website, may, after a public consultation, require a dominant wholesale service provider to make available special wholesale services.

Special wholesale services.

(2) A special wholesale service shall consist of components or functions of a retail service which are determined to be essential in order for other providers of telecommunications services to offer a total retail service to end-users that is competitive with the total retail service of the dominant wholesale service provider and which the other providers of telecommunications services cannot economically supply themselves or obtain from a public network operator other than the dominant wholesale provider.

2008 TELECOMMUNICATIONS S.R.O. 12

(3) A special wholesale service shall include either the essential components or functions of the total retail service, and any ancillary services necessary for other providers of telecommunications services to efficiently provide the total retail service.

Special wholesale service tariffs

7. (1) A dominant wholesale service provider shall publish and file with the Commission tariffs for special wholesale services.

(2) Tariffs for special wholesale services shall be non-discriminatory and shall comply with the competitive safeguards in regulation 8 (1) and 8 (2).

(3) The Commission has the authority to ensure that the special wholesale service tariffs are compliant with the Act and its Regulations, including the competitive contained in regulation 8(1) and (2).

Competitive safeguards.

8. (1) When a dominant wholesale service provider seeks to raise the price of a special wholesale service or reduce the price of the corresponding total retail service, the dominant wholesale service provider shall demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Commission that the prices of its special wholesale services satisfy the imputation standard contained in sub-regulation (2).

(2) The difference between the price of the total retail service and the price of the corresponding special wholesale service shall not be less than the difference between the long-run incremental cost of the total retail service and the long-run incremental cost of the corresponding special wholesale service.
